SERBIAN FORCES IN FULL RETREAT

Bulgarians Are Said to Have Occupied Monastir.

RELIABLE NEWS IS SCARCE

Just What Direction the Retiring Serbians Are Taking Is Unknown, but It Is Presumed They Are Making for the Mountains of Montenegro or Northern Albania.

London, Nov. 20.—A dispatch from Rome to the Exchange Telegraph company says a telegram to the Tribune from Athens says the Bulgarians have occupied Monastir and that the Serbians are in full retreat.

London, Nov. 20.—The position of the Serbian army and the attitude of Greece towards the entente powers are still the outstanding questions of interest in Europe. Reliable information on both situations is so meager that the public is unable to judge what changes, if any, have taken place.

It is thought possible that the Serbians will make a stand on the historic plain of Kossovo, east of the Montenegrin frontier, where, over 500 years ago they lost their independence to Turkey. They must either do this or retire into the mountains of Montenegro or Northern Albania, where, although they would be nearer help from the Adriatic, it would be difficult to keep them supplied, owing to the absence of roads.

BELGIUM WITH THE ALLIES

Germany Makes Assertion in Sending Seized Documents.

Washington, Nov. 20.—The German embassy delivered to the state department "for its information" a compilation of reports of Belgian diplomatic agents in various capitals of Europe to their government, which were seized when German troops entered Brussels.

It is alleged by the German government that these reports show to what extent the Belgian representatives were interested in European politics in general and in German politics in particular.

It is claimed they indicate Belgium's alignment with the entente powers.

WILL STRAIN EVERY NERVE

Said Russia Is Training Millions of New Men.

London, Nov. 20.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Morning Post sends the following:

"Russia intends to place millions of additional troops in the field, according to a notification by Premier Goremykin to the Russian press, says a private dispatch from Petrograd. The premier intimated the necessity of redoubled exertions by the nation to provide the needful equipment and munitions."

DYESTUFF OUTPUT GROWING

Increase Shown in United States Since the War Began.

Washington, Nov. 20.—Important increases in the production of coal tar dyes in the United States since the beginning of the European war are reported in an official statement by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce.

"There is increased confidence," said the statement, "among both manufacturers and consumers of dyestuffs that at an early date legislation may be passed by congress which will give the necessary security to American manufacturers of synthetic colors."

Cabinet Resignations Accepted.

Lisbon, Nov. 20.—Premier Castro has accepted the resignations of the cabinet ministers.

DISABLED FRENCHMEN FIRST TO GET JOBS.

Paris, Nov. 20.—The chamber of deputies adopted a bill giving preference in the government service to men mutilated or disabled in the war.

This preference extends to every branch of civil service and not merely to one-half of the places, as had been ordered under a ministerial decree.

FRANK B. KELLOGG.

St. Paul Man Will Not Make Race for Senator.

Frank B. Kellogg finally has decided that he will not be a candidate for the United States senate. In a statement he says:

"I am not willing to seek the office, to beg for votes, to organize a self-seeking campaign with personal workers in every precinct of the state. Such a campaign would go far to impair one's usefulness in office."

CLARK WITH WILSON ON BETTER DEFENSES

Washington, Nov. 20.—Champ Clark, speaker of the house, told President Wilson he favored a national defense program within reasonable limits.

He said he has not committed himself to the details of the administration's proposed army and navy increases because he has not thoroughly considered them, but that he believes the coming congress will work out satisfactory legislation.

"I talked with the president for only a few minutes," said the speaker, after leaving the White House. "We briefly discussed the army and navy program that has been proposed. I frankly said I would be in favor of legislation which would assure reasonable defense for the country against any possible enemy. I did not go into details."

BURNQUIST IS UNDECIDED

May Enter the Race for Governor of Minnesota.

St. Paul, Nov. 20.—Lieutenant Governor Burnquist is not out of the gubernatorial race and it is not yet certain that he will be a candidate for lieutenant governor. Neither has he changed his mind. He is in the same position in which he has been all along.

"It is putting it a little strong to say that I have retired from the gubernatorial race," he said, "for I have never declared myself a candidate. Neither have I definitely declared myself a candidate for lieutenant governor.

"I have been considering these matters and I have received many strong assurances of support in case I decide to run for governor. And I have also received letters from state senators assuring me of their support for lieutenant governor in case I decided to run for that office instead of entering the race for the governorship.

"I may be a candidate for the governorship next year and I may not. It depends on how the situation shapes itself."

BLISS NOW MAJOR GENERAL

May Become Chief of Staff on Scott's Retirement.

Washington, Nov. 20.—Brigadier General Tasker H. Bliss, assistant chief of staff of the army, became a major general upon the retirement of Major General William H. Carter.

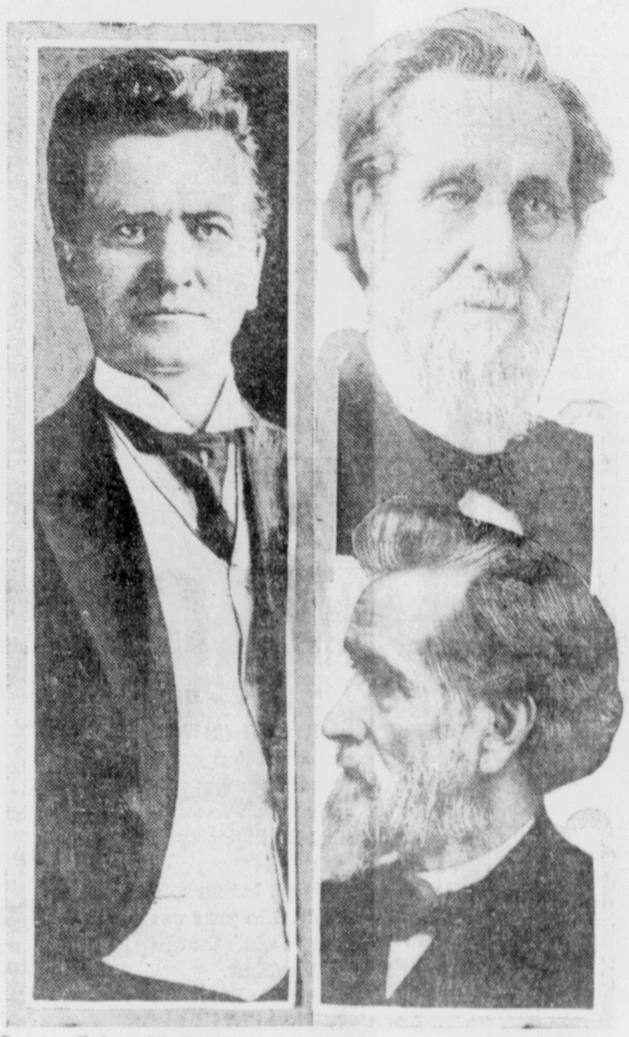

Colonel John F. Morrison of the Fifteenth infantry, now at Tientsin, China, will be promoted to a be a brigadier general, taking the place of General Bliss in the line.

General Bliss will continue as assistant chief of staff with the probability of succeeding Major General Scott as chief of staff upon the latter's retirement in 1917.

Woodman Official Dead.

Ionia, Mich., Nov. 20.—General John Mitchell, major general in command of the Modern Woodmen of America, foresters' uniform rank, died here after a long illness. He was sixty-six years old. General Mitchell was born in Franklin, N. Y.

Secrets of Famous Political Pair Are Aired

Senator Robert W. LaFollette. Two views of Senator Isaac Stephenson

"Uncle Ike" Stephenson, senator from Wisconsin, has just written for private circulation an account of his transactions with "Battling Bob," the fighting senator from the same state, which will have wide influence on the presidential campaign.

"Uncle Ike" makes the statement that he financed Senator LaFollette's reform campaigns in Wisconsin, giving toward it $500,000. He said that in all he gave toward the Republican party $1,000,000. When LaFollette and his friends conceived the idea in 1907 that the Wisconsin reformer might get the Republican nomination for the presidency H. L. Ekern of Wisconsin, he says, called on him in Washington, and suggested he put up $250,000 to finance the campaign. "Uncle Ike" was not responsive, and the sum was reduced to $25,000. But he would do nothing.

After his refusal the split between him and LaFollette, he says, widened. By the time Senator Stephenson prepared for a fight for re-election to the senate he had the LaFollette men against him. He spent $107,000, and was re-elected. LaFollette men, he says, caused investigations in Wisconsin and Washington about the use of this money.

ENGLISH TRANSPORTS USE RED CROSS FLAG

(By United Press)

Berlin, Nov. 20—That English transports are using the Red Cross flags to get troops and ammunition to the Balkans is charged by wireless messages from the German submarines operating in the vicinity of Sanonlka. It is reported that 70 English transports passed the straits of Gibraltar heavy laden and painted like hospital ships on their way to Greek waters. One official calls it the biggest fraud practised by the English navy.

RETREAT OR BE EXTERMINATED

(By United Press)

GREEK SITUATION IS CRITICAL

(By United Press)

London, Nov. 20—The Greek situation is considered critical. Private advices from German sources state that Athens has ordered all Greek vessels from French and Italian ports immediately. It is generally taken as a hint that King Constantine means to defy the allies. The order is accepted as an attempt to forestall the detention of Greek craft by the French and Italians. Steps have already been taken by the English and unless the queen has prevailed on her husband to refuse an audience, Lord Kitchener was to interview King Constantine today.

FURIOUS ARTILLERY FIGHTING

(By United Press)

Paris, Nov. 20—Furious artillery fighting at many points on the Franco-German front is reported officially. No developments are mentioned to indicate this to be the new German drive for which the kaiser is reported as transferring an immense number of troops from the eastern to the western war zone. Petrograd accounts bear out the statement that the German lines in Russia are thinning rapidly. Probably the result means the necessity of more men in Serbia and concentration on the Russian frontier.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 20.—Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate for president in 1900, 1904, 1908 and 1912, in a formol statement, announced that he had declined a fifth nomination at the hands of his party.

Mr. Debs said he would make no statement as to his reason for not accepting the nomination.

"It is the first time that I have ever had the opportunity to decline the nomination," said Mr. Debs. "Heretofore I always have been nominated at conventions when I was not in attendance. This time the nomination was made by referendum."

BIRTHS OF GERMANS FAR EXCEED LOSSES

Chicago, Nov. 20.—"Germany's strongest arm is her women. Germans are being born six times as fast as they are being killed. Germany's supply of soldiers cannot be exhausted with such birth rate."

Hudson Maxim, inventor of rapid fire guns and gun silencers, author of "Defenseless America," and advocate of extreme military preparedness for the United States, made the above statement as he passed through Chicago.

"Germany's mothers are only a cog in the wonderfully efficient machine with which the Teutonic allies have been able to surprise the world," he said, "but the mother cog has been one of the most important ones for Germany.

"I predict that the war will last from three to seven years longer. I also think that the war will end in a draw."

MUNDAY CONVICTED OF WRECKING BANK

Morris, Ill., Nov. 20.—Charles B. Munday, vice president of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank of Chicago, was found guilty of any of the specific acts which the state charges constituted a part of the conspiracy to wreck the institution, his punishment fixed by a jury at five years' imprisonment.

The maximum punishment was five years' imprisonment and a fine of $2,000. Munday and one son, J. G. Munday, were in the courtroom.

The La Salle Street bank was organized by Munday. When it failed in June, 1914, there followed the collapse of nine other banks and trust companies of the so called Lorimer-Munday string. Fourteen persons were indicted, Lorimer and Munday being the chief of them. The indictments charged them with looting the institution of almost $2,500,000 and with violation of practically every banking law of the state.

THOMPSON FOR PRESIDENT

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 20.—A petition was filed with the secretary of state to place the name of William Hale Thompson, mayor of Chicago, on the primary ballot for the Republican nomination for president. Mr. Thompson's record for law enforcement as mayor of Chicago is recited in the petition as one good reason why he should receive the nomination.

The petition was circulated at the instance of John O. Yeiser of Omaha, who filed the petition for Theodore Roosevelt in 1912.

PROTEST ALSO HITS GERMANY

Next American Note Not Confined to Britain.

WILL RELATE TO CONTRABAND

Placing of Nearly All Articles of Commerce on the Contraband Lists of European Belligerents Is Objected to by the United States.

Washington, Nov. 20.—America's protest against the placing of nearly all articles of commerce on the contraband lists of European belligerents will go to Germany and Austria, as well as to Great Britain and her allies.

In the last note to England regarding interferences with neutral trade Secretary Lansing gave notice of an intention to make contraband the subject of a later communication and preparation of this document now is in progress.

It became known that when it is forwarded to London virtually identical notes will be dispatched to the Teuton's allies and to France and Italy.

So far as Germany and Austria are concerned officials regard the forthcoming protest as more or less academic in view of the fact that their commerce raiders and cruisers no longer are on the high seas and their seizures of contraband are limited to the work of submarines.

In retaliation for the issuance of the British blockade orders in council, however, Germany has promulgated a list of contraband that includes practically all American products, consequently the state department has decided that formal protest is necessary to record the assertion of its rights by the United States.

The dispatch of the note will be delayed until it has been gone over carefully by Secretary Lansing and President Wilson and probably by the neutrality board.

Particular objection will be made, it is understood, to the seizure of American goods, even though contraband, if they are destined for consumption in a neutral country and are not bound for a belligerent port.

HAMMOND ON BOARD FOR A WORLD COURT

New York, Nov. 20.—The formal steps in a campaign for the creation of a world supreme court for the judicial settlement of all international disputes were taken at a luncheon given at the bankers' club here, which was attended by men prominent in public life from all sections of the country.

The luncheon resulted in the formation of the World's Court League of America by the election of a board of governors, who will later elect officers and perfect the organization.

Among the governors elected are the following:

John Wesley Hill, John Hays Hammond, Oscar S. Straus, Alton B. Parker, John Wanamaker, United States Senator L. [illegible] Sherman of Illinois, Charles W. Fairbanks, Governor Elect A. O. Stanley of Kentucky and Governor W. S. Hammond, Minnesota.

JURY UPHOLDS PHYSICIAN

Was Justified in Allowing Defective Infant to Die.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Six physicians, comprising a coroner's jury, held that Dr. H. J. Halselden, who permitted an infant, Allan John Bollinger, to die, when an operation might have saved him to a life of unhappiness as a defective, was morally and ethically justified in refusing to perform the operation which his conscience did not sanction.

An implied disapproval of a course wherein a physician might determine if it was or was not desirable for a patient to live is contained in the concluding paragraph of the verdict:

"We believe the physician's highest duty is to relieve suffering and to save or prolong life."

TRIMBLE TO SEND TURKEY

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

In Hearing.

They stood upon the crest of the mountain and gazed off through the purple distances.

"Darling," he whispered, bending closer, "give me a kiss—just one!"

"No, Clarence," she answered timidly; "some one will hear us. There may be other ears around."

"Other ears! Why should you think so, dearest?"

"Oh, because I have so often heard of mountaineers I thought perhaps there might be some around, and"—

But just then there was a mighty crash. A mountain goat had heard the awful pun and jumped over the cliff.—London Tatler.

Distances at Sea.

That man was laughed at who on his first voyage said that the ocean did not look so large as he supposed it would, but he was not alone in experiencing disappointment. The horizon at sea gives no idea of the limitless water beyond. A sea captain declares that the average landsman cannot see more than ten miles from the ship in any direction, and it would have to be a mountain or some stationary object for him to be able to distinguish it.—Exchange.

Dancing Party

Miss Cecil Mayo and Miss Opal Elkins gave a private dancing party on Wednesday evening. There were about thirty couples present who enjoyed dancing until after midnight. Walter Frampton and C. Jensen furnished music which was full of life and kept the whole party in good spirits.

The decorations were in pale pink and bright green and added to the beauty of the Trades & Labor hall and brightened up the evening's enjoyment. All reported having an excellent time.

There is one supreme art in which we should be desirous and ambitious to excel, that is, the art of right living. The one, the great, the all important question upon which everything else depends is "Whom shall we take as our Master in this great art? To whom shall we go? Under whose influence and atmosphere are we to put ourselves." The present condition of human affairs lead us to think that humanity has been under the wrong teacher. At this moment men are asking, "What teaching has led the world to this chaotic state? Whose leadership has turned Europe into a field of blood? Are we learning how to live right under a teacher who can teach us?" This is important for every father, mother, boy and girl, man and woman. 11:45 a. m. Sunday school. Adults are welcome to join the Rector's Class. 7:30 p. m. Evening prayer and sermon. Subject, "The attractiveness of Jesus." A continuation of the morning's subject. "The common people heard him gladly. How different today. What is the reason? It is because we do not know Him, we do not read the story of His life. We are ignorant of what He really taught." H. C. Stacey, pastor.

Oh No, Not Coney Island, but Palm Beach

As You May Look on Florida Sands.

Here's milady of Palm Beach. She will be down there by the thousand within a few months. In the mean time she is getting ready her costumes. This is one of them. Of course, it costs some money, but very few except those who have much money and time go to Palm Beach in the winter.

This dainty little confection—that's what the high-class dressmakers call it—is really modest. There will be some at Palm Beach unlike it in many ways. If you want to make this one just listen to the fashion expert:

"It is fashioned like a little girl's dress with a bloused waist, short puffed sleeves, and full gathered skirt. This suit is of gray salt water satin and has a high collar fastened with pearl buttons. The cap is trimmed with green and white striped satin."

BRILLIANT RECITAL

Pupils of the Bergh Violin School Acquit Themselves With Credit and Distinction

The First Congregational church was crowded Friday evening on the occasion of the recital given by pupils of the Bergh Violin School. It proved to be an evening of rare enjoyment and the large audience heard with interest the selections rendered by little ones and advanced pupils.

Alfred Mraz assisted and his rich baritone voice was heard in "Love's Reverie," by Squire.

Pupils of the Bergh Violin School play with a confidence and skill rarely seen and their bowing shows the faithful instruction of their tutor. From the smallest to the largest, each bowed well and among the older pupils one observed that rare purity of tone, that singing quality of the tones which only patient teaching and enthusiastic co-operation on the part of the pupil can bring forth.

As accompanists Mrs. Walter F. Wieland, Mrs. W. A. M. Johnstone and others officiated. Every pupil had the composition in question committed to memory. Each one made a most favorable impression and applause greeted each selection.

Little Marcella Goedderz played a fine melodie by Schultz. Eugene Hitch played well the Legend by Block. "Toodie" Hoffbauer, not quite 4 years old, appeared with a violin almost as big as herself and sounded the four open strings as she counted, 1, 2. Gertrude Hitch played well the "Evening" by Holtz.

Arthur Webber was heard in Klingfeld's "Gavotte." Kathleen Early, another little pupil, sounded the open strings with rare precision. Georgia Drexler played well Kriens "Birthday March." Raymond Anderson was another little pupil and he sounded the open strings well.

Robert Hitch played well and when a string broke he retired, got another violin and finished his selection like a veteran. Norbert Tomsic was another little pupil. He sounded his four strings and then finished with a pizzicato flourish.

Margaret Hough, an advanced pupil, played very well the Gavotte by Gossec. Edwin Lee rendered very capably "The Rose," by Bendix. Irene Evans showed a good appreciation or tone values in the Andante and Scherzo by Mendelssohn. Helen Frost played very well the Morning Serenade by Strauss. Franklin Rice, an advanced pupil, played the Cavitine by Raff with great skill. His double stopping was exceptionally well played.

Kathleen Gemmell played the Fourth Concertino by Huber, rendering it with great purity of tone and fine intonation. Miss Vera Wright of Staples, played with superb dash the Introduction and Polonaise by Allen. Alice Johnstone played a composition by Wieniewiski entitled "Kuiawiak" (Second Mazurka), surmounting all its technical difficulties with ease.

During part of the concert there was grouped on the platform a table at which sat many of the little performers of the evening, forming an animated background to the pupils appearing in recital. The church was nicely decorated and the attendance was one which took in parents and friends from every section and corner of the city.

D. Y. B. Class

The members of the D. Y. B. class of the Presbyterian Sunday school and the teachers and officers of the primary department had a surprise party on Miss Rose Turner last night at her home. Several silver pieces were given her from the Sunday school and her class, also a number of individual gifts. Lunch was served and an enjoyable time was had. Miss Turner expects to leave next Wednesday for Minneapolis.

New Skating Costumes Bursting Into View

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for the United Press)

When Kate goes to skate in her costume so chic,
She'll not mind a bit when some girl does a trick
And cuts fancy figures to outdo the rest,
Kate knows that the figure she cuts is the best.

New York, Nov. 19—No wonder the mercury drops to zero when the skating season begins—it wants to look 'round. Everybody does, when the new skating costumes burst into view and one good look deserves another.

The ice of conventionality is due to be smartly broken when some one cuts little ice. Flo cuts a dash and a figure across the pond in a green mottled silk sweater banded, collared, cuffed and buttoned in gold; a knee length skirt of pleated green and gold stripes, a sassy little round green cap with a golden tassel and knee high laced green boots with a tassel of gold bobbing at their tops.

The skating jackets and sweaters are of the most bizarre patterns and garish hues. Fur bands them at every conceivable point as it also bands the short pleated skirts, the skating caps and the tops of the skating boots. Persian figured sweaters as well as one-toned ones of vivid hue are worn with striped skirts of pleated velour de laine; and jackets and skirts to match, of emerald green or cerise, are gorgeous when trimmed in wide bands of white fox.

An all white costume with a short jacket hung cape like and full from the shoulders is embroidered in silver thread and banded in white fox. The fur-finished full skirt has big silver embroidered pockets on each side. The high white boots are laced with silver embroidered pockets on each side. The high white boots are laced with silver and have a silver tassel nestling in their fur tops. A white fox turban, silver tasseled, tops the costume, and a huge round muff of the white fox, with silver tasels, takes the wearer in hand. This costume of snow and silver is fit for the Ice Queen herself and no skittish skater could ever be a frost in it.

Gorgeous bags for skates, embroidered and fur trimmed to match the gay sweaters, hectic mufflers and quaintly ornate muffs are a few of the accessories necessary for the complete skater this year. If a fair skater, thus heavily accoutred, can still skate and get away with it, she is in a class with Charlotte at the Hippodrome, that peerless pirouetter of the ice ballet.

Incidentally, the introduction of the ice ballet in several of the New York musical productions seems to have given a spirit to the gentle art of skating that may freeze out the dance. But beware if you seek to emulate Charlotte with too much excess baggage.

"Mother, may I go out to skate?"
"Yes, but heed advice:
"If you've a muffler, bag and muff,
"Then don't go near the ice!"

His First Birthday

Little Donald William Britton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Britton celebrated his one year old birthday, on Nov. 19. Over twenty little folks were present. Donald received many pretty little presents. Luncheon was served and all enjoyed themselves very much, each little one carrying home his little favor and wishing Donald many more happy birthdays.

The Worst Storm Of The Season

Have your friends told you about it, over 300 people snowed in. Fire, Fire, Smoke and Water. It was something awful, the first floor in the store building just swayed and cracked, the north wall is a mass of black burnt paper, paint and wood, the steel ceiling is a sight to see with it's Bargain Seekers below.

One lady took 15 summer vests at 5c each, and a good looking young man came in and bought 10 pair of ladies hose at 5c the pair. We don't like to say it but never the less it's a fact, and one barber bought 20 cans of 2 lb. Talcum Powder at 5c the can. If you don't believe that D. A. ## Good Health Doubles the Value of Your Services

A half sick man is not worth half pay. A man or woman in poor health makes a poor leader, a poor sort of a parent.

The value of Peruna in the home can scarcely be estimated. It prevents many of the common ailments. It is an excellent remedy for coughs, colds, catarrh, grip, spring fever, tired-out feeling.

Sit down and think it over. See whether you can afford to go on half sick.

Some people prefer Peruna Tablets to the fluid Peruna.

Dedicated Song is Suppress

(By United Press)

New York, Nov. 20—Despite the protest from the White House, the printing preses are busy on copies of a song dedicated to President Wilson and bride under the title, "Prety Little Indian Maid." The words are supposed to tell the story of the president's wooing Mrs. Galt, who is a descendent of Pocahontas. J. M. Fitzpatrick, who wrote the song, said he might consent to suppress it.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys, then Back hurts and Bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

WASHINGTON WAS LEADER OF RACE

Former Slave Rose to Be Great Educator of Negroes.

FOUNDER OF BIG INSTITUTE

Tuskegee Is Known All Over the Country as the Best School For Colored Persons In the United States—Its Head Was Friend of Two Presidents and Other Noted Men.

Booker T. Washington, who died the other day, was the most widely known man his race has ever produced in this country and its foremost educator. Born of a slave mother into slavery, the fortunes of his life led him to be White House guest of a president at luncheon, to be entertained and received by queens and princes abroad, to have Harvard and Dartmouth universities confer degrees upon him and to die leaving behind him a record of achievement and ability which is generally considered never to have been equaled by any one of his race.

It was with the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial institute that Dr. Washington was most generally associated. From its foundation in 1881 until his death he had been its principal. Under his management and leading this school for negroes had grown from a shack in which thirty pupils gathered for lessons to one of the largest and most munificently equipped normal educational institutions in this country, where more than 1,500 negro boys and girls, young men and women, annually receive instruction.

But Dr. Washington's work was not confined to the administration of one school. Its importance, it is generally acknowledged, lay in his national leadership of his race. Into practically every state of the Union the negro educator went, giving advice to his people, spreading his influence, dealing with their problems whatever they were.

Trusted by Roosevelt.

In 1901 he accepted a luncheon invitation extended to him by Theodore Roosevelt, then president.

Included in the number of Dr. Washington's close personal friends may be mentioned such men as Theodore Roosevelt, William Howard Taft, Oswald Garrison Villard, President Kelsey of the Title Guarantee and Trust company, Andrew Carnegie, Jacob Schiff, Hamilton Wright Mable, Robert Shaw Minturn, Felix M. Warburg, William Jay Schieffelin, Dr. Hillis, Seth Low and Governor Whitman.

Began Life as a Slave.

Dr. Washington was born in 1857 or 1858 at Hales Ford, Franklin county, Va. A few years later the family which owned him moved to West Virginia, where the boy was put to work in salt works near Madison. About the time the war ended he began to show a desire for an education. He went to school about two months a year and read and studied at night.

In 1871 he heard of the Hampton institute at Hampton, Va. He walked part of the way to Hampton and studied at the institute, from which he was graduated with high honors. He returned to West Virginia, where he taught school for a time and then went to the Wayland institute in Washington. From there he was called to Hampton as teacher. After two years of this General S. C. Armstrong was asked by the citizens of Tuskegee, Ala., to find some one to start an institution at that place similar to the one at Hampton. He recommended young Washington, and the latter took the job, going to Alabama in 1881.

Dr. Washington had been married three times, his third wife surviving him. His first wife was Fannie M. Smith, whom he married in 1882 and who died in 1884. She was a graduate of Hampton, and the wedding took place in Tuskegee. In 1885 he married Olivia Davidson, one of the teachers at the school. She died in 1889, and Dr. Washington married Margaret J. Murray, graduate of Frick institute, in 1893.

He leaves three children, two sons and a daughter. His daughter, Portia, was born of his first marriage. His two sons, Booker T., Jr., and Edward Davidson, of his second. All three were educated in the north.

FOR U. S. SECRET SERVICE.

This Country Planning a System That Will Rival Europe's.

The United States will have a secret service to match that of any European nation within the next twelve months.

The need of such a branch of government, in whose service would be included men in all walks of life actually engaged in business or the professions or trades, as is the custom in Europe, was made obvious by the activities of the foreign agents in this country.

To make possible the creation of such a secret service congress will be asked to appropriate a sum reaching into the millions.

These secret service agents, it is proposed, will not have any badges, cards or other means of identification. They will be carried on the payrolls only by number, and their names will be known only to their immediate superiors.

AMERICA'S THANKS.

We thank him who has made and preserved us a nation.

Who hid this continent from the eyes of the world until the time for its revelation had come.

Who summoned hither faithful men, believing in God and in men as the children of God.

Who preserved the brave colonists from famine, pestilence and sword; from internal dissensions and from foreign foes.

Who united the hearts and minds of the various peoples in their demand for liberty and their declaration of independence.

Who made wise the counsels of their counselors and strong the arm of their defenders and gave victory to the weak battalions.

Who pacified the strifes and vanquished the jealousies which separated the several states and joined them in one indissoluble union.

Who suffered not the evils of slavery to end in the nation's death, but raised up prophets of liberty to awaken the consciences of the people.

Who has brought to our shores the oppressed of other lands and made it a refuge, a school, a home for the needy and the aspiring of all nations.

Who has given us wisdom in the past to provide a free school and free churches for a free people.

Who inspires in our own day clear sighted, brave hearted men to battle without truce or retreat against open violence and insidious corruption, against the perils of popular ignorance and the perils of concentrated wealth.

Who inspires other clear sighted, brave hearted men to toil in peaceful vocations without stint for public education and public virtue.

Who has given to us an open Bible, a living church and a common faith in a righteous and a redeeming God.

Oh, that men would praise the Lord for his goodness and his wonderful works to the children of men!—Outlook.

The Old Time Spirit of Thanksgiving

The old time spirit of Thanksgiving—"Ah, those were good old days!" This with reminiscent sadness. If there was not a lurking sentiment for the splendor of good fellowship, for the charm of simplicity and the peace that comes from the contented heart that marked the old time Thanksgiving, there would be no regret for the good old days that are gone. But why can't they be conjured back again that we might cherish the generous spirit of that house hold festival?

It is the character of the day that we would have back again—the aftermath of the harvest, with its spirit of joyousness, the bounteous feast gathering together the family, making sacred the beauty of home ties.

In old New England a hustle of preparation began long before the appointed day. The turkey, strutting in haughty disregard of his fate, was watched with eager eyes and fed with liberal care. The pumpkins were gathered and lay with faces upturned to the sun. Vegetables, fruits, nuts, raisins and citron were heaped in plenty upon the pantry shelf. And within the house was aglow in joyful anticipation of the coming guests—a true hospitality, not so elaborate as it was bountiful and not so luxurious as healthful, but replete with rare kindliness and grace.

And when the feast was over and the long afternoon of sport and games was spent and the shadows of evening closed round the great assemblage crowded about the huge fireplace how gayly the popcorn spluttered, how clear was the cider passed around! Hearts overflowing with jollity and gratitude burst into song—

Ah, on Thanksgiving day, when from east and from west,
From north and from south, come the pilgrim and guest;
When the gray haired New Englander sees round his board
The old broken links of affection restored
When the care wearied man seeks his mother once more
And the worn matron smiles where the girl smiled before!

This was the spirit of old time Thanksgiving.

As the result, Helen overhauls and passes the runaway emerging to the main line ahead of the wild car. The latter is brought to a halt. Sunday the Vitagraph Co. will presnt "From the Dregs." The Biograph Co. presents the "Need of Money," directed by Edward Morrissey. The story is as follows: The rich man's daughter, a spoiled child, thinks only of finery. Her father gives her a twenty-dollar note, with the promise of more when some of his tenants shall have paid their rent. While dressing to go downtown, she accidentally spills perfume on the note and pins it to a window curtain to dry. The wind carries the note away, and it is found in the grounds by a young laborer whose mother is very ill. He offers the note to the doctor in payment of his bill, and the doctor in turn pays his rent with it. The girl, missing the money, reports the loss to her father. He consoles her by offering another note; she recognizes the perfume, and demands an explanation. The doctor is followed to the laborer's cottage, where the girl, her father and the detectives they have summoned enter as the boy's mothr dies—victim of the need of money.

Charlie Chaplin appears "In the Pack." You can't afford to miss seeing this great comedian. Sunday there will be three shows, matinee at 2:30 and evening 7:30 and 9:00.

At the Best

Tonight will be seen the greatest character actor on the American stage, Mr. Frank Keenan. Not only does Mr. Keenan appear on the screen in the role that has made him famous but as he stated himself never was he so much interested in his work as he was in the "Long Chance." Said Mr. Keenan while on the stage, "I was able to give the people all that was in me, but little did I think that I could surpass myself on the screen."

Mr. Keenan's acting in "The Long Chance" is going to be long remembered. He carries you back to the days of '49 when men were judged by their deeds. His character type as a gambler and a bad man, brave as a lion, tender as a woman, and a strong enemy, will impress anybody of any station of life.

Tomorrow, Sunday matinee and evening Mr. Wm. Farnum will again appear in a role that made him the idol of movie fans. His work in "The Nigger," is without a doubt as great as that in the "Spoilers." This play is only surpassed by "The Birth of a Nation." They deal with the same great question. How would any man feel after he has made a success in life as far as becoming governor of a state and then is told and proven he has black blood in him. See how Wm. Farnum as the Nigger, makes the best of it.

The management announce to the public that they have secured the services of a pianist of extraordinary ability. Jrofessor Jules R. LeDuce the professor, is a native of Barcelona, Spain, and received his musical education in Berlin. Not only is his classical playing unsurpassed but he also can make the piano talk with his popular melodies. Having composed many popular airs himself we feel satisfied that the public of Brainerd will appreciate the efforts of the management in securing this great artist.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled. This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

It Is Not Luck or Chance Just Training--That's All

It is the young men and young women who are training themselves today who will fill the high-salaried places to-morrow. SUCCESS is largely a matter of acting promptly at the right time.

Desert Gems.

In 1880 a hunter in the northwest of New South Wales wounded a kangaroo. The animal went off through the mulga and the salt bush at a pace too fast for the hunter to follow and was soon out of sight. The hunter was a bushman and did not despair. He followed the blood trail, hopeful of a short search and a speedy bag. At one point of the pursuit it may be that the trail grew faint and necessitated a closer inspection. Anyway the hunter stooped and picked up a piece of stone. This he examined. The red spot was not on it; it was in it. It was not blood that he saw; it was opal. Such was the beginning of the White Cliffs opal fields.

Deaf Cats.

A peculiarity of deaf cats is that the seem to have a very great sense feeling in their feet pads. It is almo an impossibility for a heavy animal approach a deaf cat from behind wit out giving it warning, and this may attributed to the extreme sensitivene of the cat's feet recording the slighte tremor of the ground.

A man is pleased, he does not know why, with the cheerfulness of a companion. It is like sudden sunshine that awakens a secret delight in the mind without its attending to it. ## LAND SALE VERY SUCCESSFUL

State Auditor J. A. O. Preus Says it Was the Most Successful Special Sale He Held in State

4,000 ACRES ON TAX ROLLS

Deerwood Fish Hatchery is Sold to Crow Wing-Aitkin Co's. Sanatarium Commission

At the state sale of lands held at Brainerd this morning the state fish hatchery at Deerwood was sold at its appraised value to the Crow Wing-Aitkin county tuberculosis sanatarium commission. Commissioner Larson of Aitkin, represented Aitkin county and Dr. J. A. Thabes of Brainerd, was the Crow Wing county member of the sanatarium commission.

The fish hatchery includes one tract of 40 acres, a second tract of 2 acres and one of 2¼ acres. There is an eight-room, two story modern house on the tract with steam heating and other conveniences. It is a beautiful site about two miles from Deerwood close to the Northern Pacific and Soo railways and reached by the best rural road in Crow Wing county.

The fish hatchery, grounds and personal property sold for approximately $3,700. The buildings and fences were appraised at $2,600, timber at $300, forty acres of land at $16 an acre and the balance at $25 an acre.

State Auditor J. A. O. Preus conducted the sale and was assisted by Oscar Arneson, of the state land department.

Mr. Preus said the land sale at Brainerd was the best special sale he had held in the state. Ninety-six forties were sold at good prices, running from $5 to $15 per acre. This puts approximately 4,000 acres of land on the tax rolls in Crow Wing county. Southern Minnesota farmers were present in large numbers and the bidding was very spirited.

PREACHES FAREWELL SERMON

Rev. D. T. Jenkins Closes Pastorate of Three Years in Staples

Rev. D. T. Jenkins preached his farewell sermon at the Congregational church last Sunday morning and at the Brainerd church in the evening. Mr. Jenkins has been pastor of these churches for the past three years and has warm friends and admirers at both places. He is a man of good ability and strong convictions, asking no one's permission to either hold opinions or speak them as the spirit moves him. Such a man is both open to praise and censure. While liking the one he cares little for the other but always tries to do his duty as he sees it.

He is a decided enemy of the saloon and was among the speakers who spoke all over Todd county in the interest of county option last spring. Referring in his sermon to his endeavors as a pastor he said that if he had the three years to go over again he could see no reason at this time why he would not do just about as he had done. The removal of the church debt was a source of gratification to him at the close of his work here. Mr. Jenkins goes home to Minneapolis from here not knowing just what his future work will be.

At a special meeting of the Congregational church Monday evening the members of said church passed hearty resolutions of appreciation of the work of their pastor. They also desired to extend their best wishes for his future welfare and happiness. It has been a very pleasant pastorate During the three years not a single word of disagreement has marred the relationship.—Staples World.

DAY'S ADDRESSES REVIEWED

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Nicholson Entertained Visiting Ministers at 6 o'clock Dinner

The conference of the Swedish Baptist Ministers at the Swedish Baptist church, corner Oak and South Tenth streets, opened the morning session at 9:30 by singing and prayer after which Rev. K. A. Lundin gave an exposition of the epistle of Paul to Philemon emphasizing the Apostle's attitude towards his co-workers.

Rev. E. Bjorkquist spoke at 10:30 on the subject, "Is the Evangelistic Message and the Methods for Its Propagation the Same at all Times?" The message must not be changed or modified but the methods may vary according to the social mind.

Rev. A. B. Nordberg gave an exposition at 2 o'clock over Rom. 8:4-6, with special emphasis on being spiritually minded, its weight in our life and labors.

Rev. Carl Antonson gave an address on "The Tendencies and Influences that Threaten Spiritual Work." No belief, indifference, too many organizations and machinery and desire of popularity and wealth were pointed out to be of hinder for a deeper spiritual work. Several of the pastors partook in a lively discussion.

Dr. and Mrs. Nicholson entertained all the visiting ministers and the local pastors at a 6 o'clock dinner at their home.

DR. JOSEPH NICHOLSON

Rev. C. H. Ekblad led the song service beginning at 7:30. The church quartett sang, "Jesus is All the World to Me."

A. B. Pierson preached a very effective sermon on the words of Moses, "Speak to the People of Israel that They Go Forward." Although there are many evil tendencies and influences in this age the Gospel power and Holy zeal and faith still dwells within which lifts the fallen and moulds the consecrated soul into the image of the Divine.

Rev. Clemens closed with prayer.

This evening at 7:30 there will be a song service after which Rev. F. A. Peterson of Princeton will preach. Come and hear a god sermon by a good preacher.

Tomorrow at 10:30 Prof. C. G. Lagergren, D. D., will preach. Dr. Lagergren has for many years been dean of the Swedish Baptist Theological Seminary. He is a great Bible teacher and a very able speaker. This is a special opportunity for the people of Brainerd to hear this well known and well beloved professor.

The Sunday school meets at 12 o'clock and will be under the leadership of a Sunday school expert, Missionary Magnus Berglund of Cambridge.

At 3 o'clock Rev. Frank Peterson, D. D., of Minneapolis will give an address. Dr. Peterson is one of the best known and beloved men in Minnesota. He is an eloquent and pleasing speaker. For many years he has been one of the great missionary leaders of America. Brainerd is fortunate to hear him tomorrow.

In the evening at 7:30 Rev. Axel Lindgren, the successful and happy pastor from Cambridge will preach. Do not fail to hear this interesting speaker.

The general public is very cordially invited to attend all of these services.

DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGE

Brainerd-Cuyuna Mine in City Limits of Brainerd Soon Hoisting 10,000 Tons Monthly

PAYROLL OF $9,000 A MONTH

Wilcox Mine Installs Auxliary Electric Plant—Trestle of New Design Built

The Brainerd-Cuyuna mine in the city limits of Brainerd will soon have its second electric pump of 1,600 gallons capacity installed. It is the intention of the company to stockpile heavily this season. Negotiations are now being carried on by Charles C. Jones, Duluth, managing director, for the sale of considerable ore and a number of furnacemen of Cleveland and Pittsburgh were at the mine and sampled the ore this week. In December the company expects to take out, it is reported, 3,000 tons, working with a crew of thirty men. By April the production will have been speeded up to 10,000 tons for the month, with 110 miners on the payroll, wages paid running up to $9,600 for the month.

James A. Stetson of Deerwood and Duluth, has sold to James T. Joyce an undivided quarter interest in all minerals in lot 12, excepting part south and east of the Northern Pacific right of way in section 18, township 46, range 28.

John E. Mattson and Fredrique Mattson, his wife, are grantors and the Guaranty Iron Co. the grantees in an instrument filed in Brainerd covering modifications and amendments to a mining lease. The Mattsons own the fee of the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 10, township 46, range 29. On Nov. 19, 1906 the Mattsons executed a mining lease to John D. Lamont and the iron company is now the holder of the lease. In the three paragraphs of the amendment is specified the right to wash or screen ore by a plant established on the land in question or near by which may also treat the ores of other properties and the agreement is entered into not to deposit refuse so as to interfere with future mining.

The Cuyuna Range Power Co. has just finished connecting up the auxiliary electric plant at the Wilcox mine of the Canadian-Cuyuna Ore Co. at Woodrow. This plant consists of a 150 horse power steam engine with a 110 kilowatt electric generator. These machines are installed for use in case of any trouble arising from storms or ice should the latter interfere with the delivery of current over the power company lines. This auxiliary is of sufficient capacity to drive all electric pumps in the mine. The power company was engaged to connect up the plant.

Up to the present time two of the 150 horse power boilers have been kept under steam so that the steam pumps might be started in case of electric power was interrupted. Hereafter only one boiler will be kept under steam and the result will be a considerable saving in fuel.

The new trestle at the Wilcox mine presents a very attractive appearance and it is claimed to have many advantages over the old type. The new trestle is of the one-leg or post class. The posts are 36 feet high, made of 6 inch wrought iron pipe set on concrete foundations and filled with cement inside and painted outside. A flange coupling is used at both top and bottom for connection with the foundation and the cross car. The legs or posts are then guyed with 5-8 inch cable. The above being the permanent trestle and only two wooden post sections follow at the end where ore is dumped. The pile is being built "end on" with end dump cars. After the pile is of sufficient length, with a track the full length, side dumps are to be used and the addition to the pile will be made along the sides. The result will be a stock pile free from bents or timber of any kind which would in any way interfere with a steam shovel picking up the pile.

The big Kennedy underground mine at Cuyuna, the pioneer producer of the range, will get out 100,000 tons this season and stockpile it for early spring shipment. The broken shaft in their electrical equipment has been repaired and underground tramming is again being done with electric power. Capt. G. A. Anderson of the Kennedy, was at Chicago where he met officials of the Rogers-Brown Ore Co. At present about 150 men are employed at the mine.

The Iron Mountain mine has three crews at work, each on an eight hour shift. Ore is being loaded into cars and hauled away every day by the Soo. It is said the mining company will in the near future use electric power and light at the mine located near Manganese.

Very little has so far been done at the old Duluth-Brainerd mine, but it is said that the mine will soon be cleared of water and new boilers and machinery will be on the ground in a short time. Shipments have concluded for the season at Cuyuna-Mille Lacs mine and arrangements are being made for stock piling. A spur is being built in to the Cuyuna-Sultana mine by the Soo. The Cuyuna Iron & Manganese Ore Co. which developed the Mahnomen pit mine property on the north range and paid a dividend, will hold its meeting on Nov. 26.

KILLED IN A RUNAWAY

Special to Dispatch:—

Baxter, Minn., Nov. 20—Thrown from a farm wagon into a field of stubble, Winfred Barrett, aged 15, was dragged by a runaway team Friday afternoon until the heavy wheels crushed his skull, broke a leg, and killed him almost instantly. A smaller brother, Charles, leaped to safety as the older boy vainly tried to check the flight of the horses.

The accident happened on the farm of their father, Zachary Barrett, of Baxter township, five miles west of Brainerd. Julius Marohn, a neighbor, witnessed the accident and picked up the quivering body in the corn field.

The funeral services were held this Saturday afternoon at Brainerd from the undertaking parlors of D. E. Whitney, Rev. Meade officiating. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

IMPORTANT BOARD MEETING

A very important meeting of the advisory board of the Chamber of Commerce will be held on Monday evening, Nov. 22, at which time reports concerning a municipal Christmas tree, a municipal skating rink, and other matters of like importance will be discussed, and it is particularly important that every member of the committee be present on that date.

FOOTBALL PICTURES

Brainerd Theatre Goers will be Treated to a View of the Chicago-Minnesota Game Monday

"They are the greatest football pictures ever filmed. They are wonderful."

This is what "Doc" Williams, famous coach of Minnesota gridiron warriors, said when he was asked how he liked the movies of the Chicago-Minnesota game filmed by the Brainerd Dispatch Northwest Weekly in Minneapolis last Saturday.

And "Doc" Williams opinion is worth a whole lot, for "Doc" is censor both of motion pictures and football and a film story of a sporting event never gets by him without some word of praise or criticism.

Others who saw these pictures at the big theatres in Minneapolis the first of the week also say that they are remarkable. The pictures give a compiete story of this great championship battle from the time the teams trot onto the field until the referee blows the final whistle. The film is in a class by itself, for heavy snow fell throughout the contest and at times the day was so dark that picture making seemed almost out of the question.

In filming this game the Dispatch Northwest Weekly camera men made a record. They not only came very near doing the impossible, in taking the pictures under such adverse conditions, but they developed and printed their pictures in time to show them in the Minneapolis theatres Sunday afternoon—the fastest work accomplished in this part of the movie world.

Three camera men were on the job. One handled the crowds and the others worked on the game so that every play is shown in detail. The scoring, the goal kicking and all the "sidelights" of the game are pictured in a way that will make one cheer.

These wonderful pictures will be shown at the Best theatre on Monday, the management of this popular photoplay house having obtained the first release of the Northwest Weekly out of Minneapolis.

Pomp in the White House.

Pretty Julia Gardiner, the New York girl who became the second wife of President John Tyler, more than thirty years her senior, eight months before the close of his term, was an heiress, and this fact had no little influence on the social innovations with which she startled our ancestors. The twenty-four-year-old "First Lady" had been educated abroad, and she attempted to engraft the pomp of royalty upon the simple White House customs, wearing a headdress which imitated a crown and surrounding herself with a group of maids of honor.—New York World.

"Kindly Fruits of the Earth."

The expression in the prayer book, "kindly fruits of the earth," has for most persons no definite meaning because of the difference in significance now attached to the word kindly from that used when the expression was first written. The word kindly in that connection means as nearly as possible "of its kind," and the expression "kindly fruits of the earth" meant "the fruits of the earth each after its kind."—Exchange.

Her Liquid Gaze.

"I wonder how she got her eyes to look so nice and clear." "Maybe she strained them."

GOVERNOR TAKES POSITIVE STAND

Says He Will Rid Utah of Lawless Element.

MAY CALL STATE MILITIA

Executive Declares Every Lawbreaker, All Who Defy Law and Order or Who Are Opposed to the Same Will Be Driven Out of the Commonwealth.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 20.—Joseph Hillstrom's execution for the murder of J. G. Morrison and Morrison's son, Jan. 10, 1914, was followed by Governor Spry's announcement that he will "clear the state of the lawless element that now infests it."

"Every lawbreaker, every man who defies law and order, every man who is opposed to law and order—call themselves what they will—will be driven out of the state," he said.

"I am going to see the work is started at once. If the city officers and others whose duty it is do not do so I will do it myself.

"I am going to see that inflammatory street speaking is stopped and at once, let them call it by 'free speech' or any other name they wish."

The governor said he did not believe it would be necessary to use the state militia, but that the militia would be used if necessary to clean the state of the men who have been writing threatening letters and making incendiary speeches.

It is known that a considerable amount of evidence in this connection has been collected by the state in the last few months and the governor said emphatically he intended to adopt drastic measures to end the condition of alarm that has existed here as a result of the agitation of the Hillstrom case.

VETERAN LOSES STATE JOB

Court Holds He Is Not Entitled to Preference.

St. Paul, Nov. 20.—Old soldiers are not entitled to any preference in the matter of holding state positions, the state supreme court decided.

A decision of Judge W. L. Kelly of the Ramsey county district court was reversed in the case of B. F. Allen, McLeod county, deputy state oil inspector, discharged by A. J. Rush state oil inspector.

Allen is a Civil war veteran and contended that for this reason he was entitled to continue in his position so long as he was qualified to perform the duties.

The supreme court decides heads of state departments can appoint or dismiss employes at will and no reasons need be given.

SAYS PROGRESSIVES WILL BE IN RACE.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—George W. Perkins, conferring here with local leaders of the Progressive party, said that "the Progressive party must and will have a national ticket in the field in 1916."

CANAL CLOSED SIX MONTHS

Slides Result in Sending Away Army of Employes.

Panama, Nov. 20.—Owing to the tying up of the Panama canal by the recent slide a large number of employes, mainly in the operating divisions, are being furloughed or given vacations, which is taken here to indicate the canal will remain closed for longer than was first expected.

It is the intention of Major General George W. Goethals, governor general of the canal zone, to force a temporary channel through the slide and pass through the waterway a few ships which have been waiting since the canal closed, and then shut off traffic until all danger of slides has been definitely ended. This will take six months.

SUSAN E. DICKINSON DEAD

Famous Woman War Correspondent Dies at Eighty-two.

Strike Riot at Cleveland.

Cleveland, Nov. 20.—Rioting, which was suppressed by police reservers, occurred at the war order auto body plant of Theodor Kundtz when automobiles loaded with strikebreakers rushed through the strikers' picket line to the factory. Strike pickets say one shot was fired at them from one of the automobiles.

Austrian Bombs Kill Twelve.

Rome, Nov. 20.—Austrian aviators threw fifteen bombs on Udine, Italy, killing twelve persons and wounding twenty-seven, according to an official announcement made by the Italian war office. Another squadron of aeroplanes dropped bombs on Verona and Vicenza, in the Italian province of Venetia, and on Grado.

French Redouble Efforts.

Athens, Nov. 20.—The newspaper Hestia says it believes that there are 45,000 Bulkarians in Prelip and the surrounding district, where there are only small Serbian forces. The paper says that the French, having repulsed Bulgarian attacks for three days, are redoubling their efforts to occupy Veles.

GEORGIA BARS BEER ADS

Governor Signs Last of Bills Revising Liquor Laws.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 20.—Revision of Georgia's prohibition laws, one of the purposes for which the legislature is in special session, was completed when Governor Harris signed the last of a series of bills designed particularly to banish from the state all breweries, liquor clubs and "near beer saloons."

All the bills become effective May 1, 1916.

One forbids the advertisement of intoxicants in newspapers, periodicals, on billboards or by any other means.

Something Wrong Somewhere.

A mendicant stood forth arrayed in a cloud of gloom and a placard bearing the legend, "I Am Deaf and Dumb." Comes old Festus Pester, bearing a grouch that would have put a hyena to shame.

"Huh!" he snarled. "What's the need of that sign? I see you are deaf and dumb!"

"Like heck, you can!" returned the afflicted one. "You don't see deaf and dumbness, you pickle headed fool; you hear it!"—Kansas City Star.

EAST PROVIDES ALL PRESIDENTS

No Man From South or West Can Be Elected.

NEW YORK AND OHIO LEAD.

Each of These States Has Furnished Five Presidents Since the Death of John Quincy Adams—Senator Overman of North Carolina to Oppose Wilson's Defense Plans.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 20.—[Special.]—For many years this country has confined its presidential selections to comparatively narrow limits. It has been ninety-two years since Massachusetts furnished a president, although since that time the state has had several men who were fitted for the high office. With two possibilities there may be an opportunity to break the long drought next year. Of course there is no valid reason why Massachusetts or Maine or Minnesota should not have the presidency if it has the right kind of men.

At the beginning of our government Virginia and Massachusetts furnished all the presidents. Since John Quincy Adams was elected by the house of representatives neither state has furnished a president save in the case of John Tyler, who came to the office by the death of Harrison. Outside of Virginia and Massachusetts, New York and Ohio have furnished five presidents each, Tennessee three, Illinois two, and Louisiana, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Indiana and New Jersey one each.

Narrowing the Circle.

The tendency is to narrow the circle, to say that a man's geographical position shall bar him from the highest office in a country where all states are a part of the Union. Thus it is that the southern states have been shut out since the civil war, a sectional prejudice without rime or reason in this generation. No man beyond the Mississippi is allowed to occupy the White House, while the man from west of the Rocky mountains is considered an utter impossibility even for a vice presidential nomination.

National or State Suffrage.

The Congressional union has been contending all along for woman suffrage by national enactment and has never swerved from its steadfast support of the Susan B. Anthony amendment, refusing to be led away by any makeshifts of any kind. Curiously enough, this Congressional union seems to be making a big time in the national capital, no doubt on account of the constant pursuit of the one big object.

Wanted "George" to Do It.

Senator Overman of North Carolina wishes the president had "let George do it"—that is, that he had let the Republicans hammer away at national preparedness and kept the Democrats on the even line they have been pursuing. "I should have let the Republicans shout for men and arms and war," he said, "and we could have remained peaceful and the champions of peace. No country in Europe will be in a condition to attack this country when the present conflict in Europe closes. Besides, our position is a guarantee against attack. We might well have postponed our war preparations."

Picking Flaws In Him.

Whenever a man rises to prominence in a political race there are men who will pick flaws in him. That is the way of political rivals, and that is the way the people get a view of the men who desire to be candidates for high positions. Just lately it has been discovered that former Senator Burton has a few vulnerable points. It is said that at times his Republicanism has not been any too strong; that he is self willed and opinionated. The latter charge, if true, should be no bar to the presidency. The people have shown that they like such men for the highest office in the land.

May Be Forced to Run.

It sometimes happens that a man cannot decline or get out of an office. Congressman Lloyd of Missouri had rather a hard fight to secure the nomination for his tenth term last year, and after his election was secure he announced that he would not be a candidate again. But his people are beginning to talk differently. They say that it is not for him to determine when he will quit serving them. They have supported him all these years, and if they continue to want him it is his duty to stay. That is certainly one way of looking at it. Perhaps that accounts for the way in which quite a number of men stay in so long.

Making Themselves Heard.

Those two New Yorkers elected to fill vacancies in the house were not slow to make themselves heard when they came to Washington. Soon after the election in November they were in the national capital and in interviews told what should be done and how. They asserted their Republican principles in no unmistakable terms, and they saw victory ahead next year. They did not say whom New York is going to support for the Republican nomination, which is really a great pity, for it might have given an intimation as to the trend of Republican thought in the Empire State.

LOSES FIGHT FOR OFFICE

South Dakota Doctor Cannot Compel Governor to Appoint Him.

Pierre, S. D., Nov. 20.—The supreme court denied a writ of mandamus asked for by Dr. Oscar Phels of Lemmon, who sought to compel Governor Byrne to apoint him head of the state board of health under the old soldier preference act of the stae.

The court holds the governor is not performing a mere ministerial act in making an appointment, but should use discretionary powers.

FOUGHT AT LITTLE BIG HORN

Ogallala Fire, Indian Chief, Dying in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Ogallala Fire, a noted Indian chief and a survivor of Custer's last fight, is reported dying here at the home of his friend, Chief Littlebear.

Chief Ogallala Fire is eighty-seven years old. For nearly forty years he has been exhibited throughout the country as an attraction in circuses and museums. His home is on a reservation in Idaho.

HILLSTROM, I. W. W. LEADER, EXECUTED

Salt Lake City, Nov. 20.—Joseph Hillstrom, aged thirty-three years, I. W. W. leader, was legally shot to death by a firing squad.

Hillstrom was pronounced dead within thirteen seconds after he was shot. The doctors pronounced the execution "most humane" and "obviously superior to hanging." Hillstrom himself chose to be shot by a firing squad instead of dying on the scaffold.

He paid the death penalty for the murder in January, 1914, of J. G. Morrison and his son Arling.

While circumstantial evidence convicted Hillstrom of the murders his own attempt to defend himself in court and his refusal to tell where he was on the night of the crime helped to send him to his doom. Hillstrom's plea was that he was in a married woman's company and he consistently adhered to the declaration that he would rather die than ruin her good name.

SCIENTISTS FIND PELLAGRA CURE

Tests on Convicts Result In Checking Spread of Malady.

IS DUE ENTIRELY TO DIET.

They Lived Without Meat For Five Months and Then Developed the Disease—Common In Some Southern States, but It Is Now Hoped to Eradicate It.

The cause and a cure for pellagra have been discovered by the public health service. The spread of this malady, which has been increasing in the United States at a terrific rate during the past few years, may now be checked and eventually eradicated.

Assistant Secretary Newton, in charge of the public health service, regards the discovery as one of the most important achievements of medical science in recent years.

The final experiment of a long series of the public health service was carried out at a convict camp on the farm of the Mississippi State penitentiary, about eight miles east of Jackson, Miss., where the work has been in charge of Surgeon Joseph Goldberger and Assistant Surgeon G. A. Wheeler of the service. The experiment was to test the possibility of producing pellagra in healthy human white adult males by a restricted, one sided, mainly carbohydrate (cereal) diet. Of eleven convicts who volunteered for this experiment six developed a typical dermatitis and mild nervous gastro-intestinal symptoms.

Produced the Disease.

Experts, including Dr. E. H. Galloway, the secretary of the Mississippi state board of health; Dr. Nolan Stewart, ex-superintendent of the Mississippi State Hospital For the Insane at Jackson; Dr. Marcus Hause, professor of dermatology, medical college of the University of Tennessee, Memphis, Tenn., and Dr. Martin R. Engman, professor of dermatology in the Washington Medical school, St. Louis, declare that the disease which was produced was true pellagra.

Governor Brewer offered to pardon the convicts, who would receive proper care throughout the experiment. The diet given was bountiful, but there were no meats, milk, eggs, beans, peas or similar proteid foods. This diet consisted of biscuits, fried mush, grits and brown gravy, sirup, corn bread, cabbage, sweet potatoes, rice, collards and coffee with sugar.

The convicts began the test on April 9. Although the occurrence of nervous symptoms and gastro intestinal disturbances was noted early, it was not until Sept. 12, or about five months after the beginning of the restricted diet, that the skin symptoms so characteristic of pellagra began to develop. No case of pellagra developed in camp excepting among those men who were on the restricted diet.

On the basis of this discovery Mississippi, Louisiana and Florida have laid their propaganda before their respective boards of health for the eradication of the disease.

DESERTED VESSELS.

Mysterious Wanderers Mariners at Times May Meet at Sea.

At least once in my life I have had the good fortune to board a deserted vessel at sea. I say "good fortune" because it has left me the memory of a singular impression. I have felt a ghost of the same thing two or three times since then when peeping through the doorway of an abandoned house, writes Wilbur Daniel Steele in Harper's Magazine.

Now, that vessel was not dead. She was a good vessel, a sound vessel, even a handsome vessel, in her blunt browed, coastwise way. She sailed under four lowers across as blue and glittering a sea as I have ever known, and there was not a point in her sailing that one could lay a finger upon as wrong. And yet passing that schooner at two miles one knew somehow that no hand was on her wheel. Sometimes I can imagine a vessel stricken like that moving over the empty spaces of the sea carrying it off quite well were it for for that indefinable suggestion of a stagger, and I can think of all those ocean gods, in whom no landsman will ever believe, looking at one another and tapping their foreheads with just the shadow of a smile.

I wonder if they all scream—these ships that have lost their souls? Mine screamed. We heard her voice like nothing I have ever heard before, when we rowed under her counter to read her name—the Marionette it was of Halifax.

I remember how it made me shiver, there in the full blaze of the sun, to hear her going on so, railing and screaming in that stark fashion. And I remember, too, how our footsteps, pattering through the vacant internals in search of that haggard utterance, made me think of the footsteps of hurrying warders roused in the night.

And we found a parrot in a cage, that was all. It wanted water. We gave it water and went away to look things over, keeping pretty close together, all of us. In the quarters the table was set for four. Two men had begun to eat, by the evidence of the plates. Nowhere in the vessel was there any sign of disorder, except one sea chest broken out, evidently in haste. Her papers were gone, and the stern davits were empty. That is how the case stood that day, and that is how it stood to this. I saw this same Marionette a week later, tied up in a Hoboken dock, where she awaited news from her owners. But even there, in the midst of all the water front bustle, I could not get rid of the feeling that she was still very far away—in a sort of shippish other world.

The thing happens now and then. Sometimes half a dozen years will go by without a solitary wanderer of this sort crossing the ocean paths, and then in a single season perhaps several of them will turn up, vacant waifs, impassive and mysterious.
